

Downstream Walk from Neds Corner Homestead

1 kilometre

Legend

- Black & white “Liba Liba 447” “sign on far bank
- Blue and white “718” sign on far bank
- Riverbank clear of undergrowth and shaded by large redgums.
- Old punt site with timber piles on both banks
- Electric fence marking border with Murray Sunset National Park
- Murray Sunset National Park wooden sign.
- Blue and white “716” sign on far bank.
- Broken black & white “Liba Liba 44?” “sign on far bank.
- Concrete peg painted red & marked “RWC 85 T49”
- Suitable point to return via riverside track

This trail map can be downloaded free from:
www.sunbushwalk.net.au

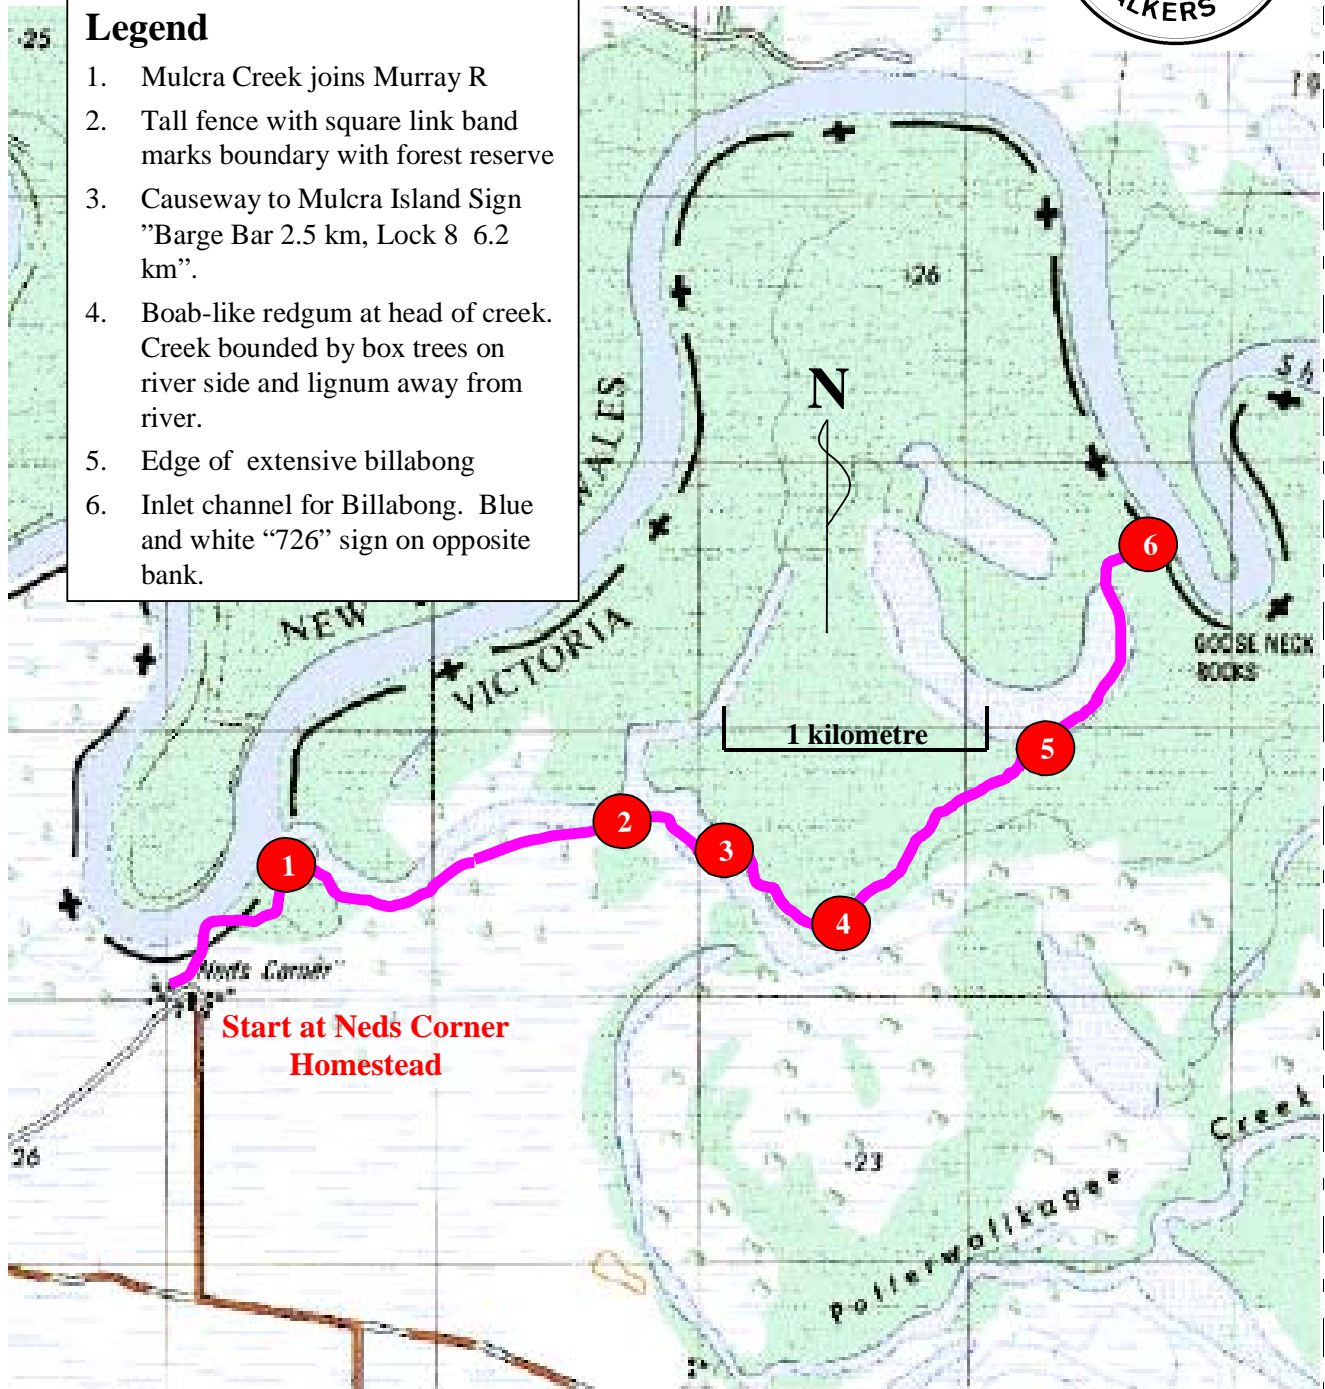

Upstream Walk from Neds Corner Homestead

Legend

1. Mulcra Creek joins Murray R
2. Tall fence with square link band marks boundary with forest reserve
3. Causeway to Mulcra Island Sign "Barge Bar 2.5 km, Lock 8 6.2 km".
4. Boab-like redgum at head of creek. Creek bounded by box trees on river side and lignum away from river.
5. Edge of extensive billabong
6. Inlet channel for Billabong. Blue and white "726" sign on opposite bank.

This trail map can be downloaded free from:
www.hotkey.net.au/~sunbushwalk/

